Reguest Mentha I have just weceived your letter, and frankly its contents aslowish me and malles me langle. You espect my answer to night from me promobelly. the that avuild not be sufficient: n'ght now you shall have it in writing, and lonight presonally. well I certainly do not know how you justibly con accuse one of having you treated coldly. I believe that from the very beginning of our been very attentif, and never indifferent. Theyway perhaps you know the English proverte: Thre love never runs sino oo the I must repeat that I feel very strongly mever to have given you cause of beeing angry and skinew very well last that something mas the matter I believe something was 78th St. (2) Matis all. To be continued towight at 7-5harp. An wedoir, Marling Your loving Heinrich
